

American Correctional Association
PRESS RELEASE

October 8, 2010

Corrections Official Earns Professional Designation

Alexandria, VA. Daniel G. Ronay, CEC, Chief of Staff, Department of Correction, Indianapolis, IN was recertified as a Certified Corrections Executive (CCE) by the American Correctional Association on October 8, 2010.

After having become certified by qualifying for (based on their experience and accomplishments in the field of corrections) and successfully passing a comprehensive examination that tests their knowledge as a Corrections Executive, Re-Certification as CCE requires the completion of a minimum of 100 Continuing Education Contact Hours. This type of commitment to continuously up-date one's skills epitomizes professionalism in the corrections field.

The American Correctional Association Certification Program, itself, is designed to advocate for the field of corrections. It promotes the capabilities of correctional professionals to the general public in order to enhance society's image of corrections personnel.

The American Correctional Association congratulates Daniel G. Ronay, CCE, on this achievement.

For more information contact:

Peg O'Brien, M.A., CCM
Corrections Certification Program
American Correctional Association
206 N. Washington Street
Alexandria, Virginia 22314
Tel: (703) 224-0000 ext 0175
Fax: (703) 224-0166